

Performer Wanted!

Join Lexington Children's Theatre for our 2023 Spring Tour productions:

Anansi the Spider by Jeremy Kisling (Grades K-3)

The Legend of John Henry by Vivian and Larry Snipes (Grades 4-6)

Dates: January 9, 2023 - May 13, 2023 (18 weeks)

We are seeking a POC male-presenting performer who can sing tenor/baritone for the Anansi/Storyteller 1 track in our Spring Tour. Performers who can also play an instrument are encouraged to apply.

About LCT Tour:

Salary ranges from $400 to $425 per week (depending on experience). Our 4-person, self-contained "run-out" touring ensemble also performs in-house on our Main Stage and attends promotional events, and possibly teaches a few theatre workshops in schools. Mercedes Sprinter Tour Vehicle, Touring Per Diem, Hotels, and Townhouse Residence are provided during the contract.

Qualifications for Performers:

Professional training or experience as a performer

Imagination, creativity, and versatility

Appreciation and respect for children and young people

Must enjoy working closely with fellow actors

To apply, email our Casting Contact:

Heather Branham, Resident Director c/o residentdirector@lctonstage.org

Equal Opportunity Employment:

Lexington Children's Theatre welcomes, celebrates, and seeks people of all ages, ethnicities, cultures, gender identities, sexual orientations, and physical and cognitive abilities to join our dynamic artists.