

Summer Teaching Artists (6-8) (May 21, 2023 –August 12th, 2023)

Lexington Children’s Theatre is looking for Summer Teaching Artists to teach and direct in our Summer Theatre School program for students 5-18. Teaching Artists will coordinate and implement lesson plans, and art activities, and immerse themselves in mentoring and developing young people’s creativity and imagination in our summer classes. We ask that Teaching Artists have a love of young people, an interest in Theatre for Young Audiences, and are excited about teaching. The Teaching Artists will report to the Education Director and have training in bringing the arts alive to the young people of Central Kentucky.

Summer Teaching Artist Position offers:

- $400 a week for a 40-hour workweek.
- Housing is available for employees at $100 a week.
- Our Townhouses offer laundry, internet, and paid utilities.
- Guaranteed day off each week
- Memorial Day and July 4th holidays are off.
- 3 Sick days
- LCT works to create a collaborative community that mentors each other’s artistry.

To Apply:

Email lct.hiring@gmail.com

You will need:

- Please supply a cover letter indicating your position of interest.
- Your resume
- Contact information for three references
- Additional support materials
- Your online portfolio or website