

Resident Teaching Artist Job Description

Lexington Children's Theatre

Posted: June 25th, 2023

Position: Resident Teaching Artist

Reports To: Education Director

Compensation $25,000 Annual Salary

About Lexington Children's Theatre:

Lexington Children's Theatre's (LCT) mission is to create imaginative and compelling theatre experiences for young people and families. Our vision is to impart, explore, foster, and develop artistry at all levels and ages in every theatrical discipline and educational opportunity through inclusive, diverse, equitable, and accessible programming and practice.

Reporting to the Education Director, the Resident Teaching Artist contributes to and participates in the successful completion of all aspects of LCT's professional season and education programming. The Resident Teaching Artists (RTA) develops and facilitates quality education programs and experiences for young people at LCT and in our community. The RTA teaches in LCT's offsite and outreach classes and writes lesson plans, arts integration residencies, and resource materials for teachers in cooperation with education department staff and teachers. Additionally, the RTA executes administrative duties such as correspondence with patrons, class registrations, and enrollment management. The RTA assists with LCT's productions as needed.

Compensation: The range of benefits includes fully paid medical insurance (worth $6,000 a year), paid time off, a paid two-week holiday break, and a retirement plan with a 3% match from the company ($690 a year). This position also is offered housing in LCT townhouses located about a mile from the theatre. The rent for the townhouse is $75 a week.

To Apply: Applicants interested in applying for this position must email a cover letter, resume, and lesson plan sample by July 21st, 2023, to: lct.hiring@gmail.com

Should you advance to a finalist for this position, successful completion of background screening will be required, including references.
